SALUTATION

LEGISLATOR FIELDS:

We are on the record. Tabled Resolution 1111-01.

LEGISLATOR CARACAPPA:

On the motion.

LEGISLATOR FIELDS:

Yes?

LEGISLATOR CARACAPPA:

Madam Vice Chair. We have been holding this resolution here for way too long. Update; okay motion to table 1111.

LEGISLATOR FIELDS:

You know, can we just walk in and say motion to adjourn, as he walks in? All right?

LEGISLATOR CARACAPPA:

With this one again that it's been here for so long. Where's my book? I didn't bring it in.

MR. SABATINO:

The reason it was tabled was Civil Service expressed opposition to the concept. I mean, they felt it would create more problems than it would solve. So in deference to their testimony that's the reason it was tabled. But the bill itself, you know basically asks the State -- it asks our local Civil Service Department to ask the State Civil Service Department to file an application to allow a lifting of a ceiling on compensation, so that Suffolk County could pay part time clerk typists anywhere from five thousand to seven thousand dollars, which would put us into a better position with Nassau County, where they can earn six thousand dollars. The theory being that Nassau County right now is able to take --

LEGISLATOR FIELDS:

Motion to adjourn. Okay, we began the meeting. We started on 1111.
